

Word:

No deal

Word Juggle

Word:

Single market

Word Juggle

Word:

Schengen area

Word Juggle

Word:

Transition period

Word Juggle

Word:

Alignment

Word Juggle

Word:

Brexodus

Word Juggle

Word:

Brexit bus

Word Juggle

Word:

Brexiters

Word Juggle

Word:

Tariff-free trade

Word Juggle

Definition:

The largest free travel area in the world. It is made up of 26 European states that have abolished passport controls at their mutual borders so people can travel freely. Some European Union member states, including the UK, are not in Schengen

Word Juggle

Definition:

A system that enables goods, services, people and capital (money) to move between all 28 EU member states. Countries in the single market apply many common rules and standards. A UK company can sell its product in Portugal as easily as in the UK.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Means the UK leaving the European Union and cutting ties immediately, with no agreement in place. If MPs do not approve a deal, the UK will leave with no deal on 31 October. The UK would follow World Trade Organization rules to trade with the EU.

Word Juggle

Definition:

A combination of the words "Brexit" and "exodus" to mean the departure of people or companies from the UK because of Brexit. Whether this has happened, or will happen, is contested.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Keeping rules and regulations in the UK in line with those in the European Union after Brexit, as in "regulatory alignment".

Word Juggle

Definition:

The transition period is intended to allow time for the UK and EU to agree their future relationship. The UK would have no say in the making of new EU laws during the transition but would have to follow all EU rules, including freedom of movement.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Trade without any taxes or duties to pay when goods are imported or exported.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Short for those who are in favour of Brexit.

Word Juggle

Definition:

A bus hired by the Leave campaign. On its side was a slogan that became one of the most controversial of the campaign and was credited by some with swinging the result: "We send the EU £350m a week. Let's fund our NHS instead."

Word Juggle

Word:

Article 50

Word Juggle

Word:

Hard Brexit

Word Juggle

Word:

Hard border

Word Juggle

Word:

Another referendum

Word Juggle

Word:

Backstop plan

Word Juggle

Word:

Brexit

Word Juggle

Word:

Brexit day

Word Juggle

Word:

Can't have your cake and eat
it

Word Juggle

Word Juggle

Definition:

A border controlled and protected by customs officials, police, or military personnel.

Word Juggle

Definition:

A hard Brexit would be one where few of the existing ties between the UK and the EU were retained. The UK would give up membership of the EU's single market and its customs union, instead setting up its own trade deals and rules.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Part of an EU treaty that sets out how member countries can leave, with a two-year timetable for leaving. Article 50 was triggered by Prime Minister Theresa May at the end of March 2017 and means the UK will leave the EU at the end of October 2019.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Short for Britain exiting the European Union.

Word Juggle

Definition:

There are no physical barriers or checks on people or goods crossing the border between Northern Ireland and Ireland. The backstop would keep the UK inside the EU's customs union without a deal because no one wants a new physical barrier.

Word Juggle

Definition:

Some campaigners - who call their proposal the People's Vote - want to have another referendum on the UK's membership of the EU. Opponents of another vote say there is no need for it as the 2016 referendum made it clear that people wanted to leave.

Word Juggle

Definition:

A phrase used to mean that Britain is trying to retain all the benefits of European Union membership without the obligations, including payments to the EU budget, accepting the European Court of Justice and accepting the free of movement of people.

Word Juggle

Definition:

The day when the UK leaves the European Union, initially set for 29 March 2019 and now 31 October 2019, but subject to change by agreement with the EU.

Word Juggle